Buchholz Awarded NDU Education Scholarship

BISMARCK, N.D. – Marcy Buchholz, of Minot, N.D., has been awarded an NDU Education Scholarship from the North Dakota United Foundation for the 2015-16 year. Buchholz will receive a cash award of $1,000 for her senior year of Elementary Education and Early Childhood Education study. NDU Education Scholarships are awarded to a student member of NDU, including student NEA/AFT members in other states, who are pursuing an undergraduate degree in education.

Buchholz is attending the University of North Dakota and will graduate in December 2015 with a double major in Elementary Education and Early Childhood Education. While in high school and college, she has had extensive experience teaching children in both Minot and Grand Forks. She's excited to enter the teaching profession and to make a positive impact on her students.

North Dakota United is the state's largest professional association of public educators and employers. Membership includes over 11,000 K-12 school teachers and support staff, higher education faculty and staff, city, county and state employees, retirees and students pursuing a degree in education. The purpose of the NDU Foundation is to promote educational excellence and quality public service in North Dakota. The Foundation's goal is to aid educators, public servants and students in achieving greater educational success. The Foundation accomplishes this by providing grants and scholarships to individual educators, public servants and college students, to use toward continuing education and developing skills.

North Dakota United is the largest professional organization of public employees in the state, representing over 10,000 public school teachers, school staff, university faculty and staff, and city, county and state workers. Our association represents our members in the state Capitol, the Legislature, in worksites and in our communities, promoting the great public education and great public services we provide to the state of North Dakota.
