Mack Awarded NDU Member/Dependent Scholarship

BISMARCK, N.D. – Austin Mack, of Dickinson, N.D., has been awarded an NDU Member/Dependent Scholarship from the North Dakota United Foundation for the 2015-16 year. Mack, the son of Cherie Mack, Dickinson, will receive a cash award of $1,000 for his sophomore year of study. NDU Member/Dependent Scholarships are awarded to a member, including student members or dependents of an NDU member, who is pursuing post-secondary education in any field of study, including vocational, associate or bachelor's degree programs.

Mack is pursuing a degree in Communications with a concentration on Human Resources and Marketing from the University of Jamestown. He's currently on the dean's list and a Cheyenne River Sioux Tribal Chairman's List Academic Student. Austin is also a member of the university's track and soccer teams, the Student Senate and the Code of Conduct review board.

North Dakota United is the state's largest professional association of public educators and employers. Membership includes over 11,000 K-12 school teachers and support staff, higher education faculty and staff, city, county and state employees, retirees and students pursuing a degree in education. The purpose of the NDU Foundation is to promote educational excellence and quality public service in North Dakota. The Foundation's goal is to aid educators, public servants and students in achieving greater educational success. The Foundation accomplishes this by providing grants and scholarships to individual educators, public servants and college students, to use toward continuing education and developing skills.
