Quist Awarded Ron & Ann Anstrom Scholarship for English, Math or Science Instructors

BISMARCK, N.D. – Theresa Quist, of Bismarck, has been awarded the Ron & Ann Anstrom Scholarship for English, Math or Science Instructors from the North Dakota United Foundation for the 2015-16 year. Quist will receive a cash award of $3,000 for her master's degree in Reading Instruction. The Ron & Ann Anstrom Scholarship Program is intended to assist individual English, math or science instructors to improve their qualifications by attending summer school or by engaging in graduate-level courses during the regular academic year, online or through extension courses that are part of a graduate program.

Quist received her undergraduate degree in Elementary Education and Early Childhood Education from the University of Mary, graduating Summa Cum Laude. She is a second-grade teacher at Sunrise Elementary in Bismarck and is completing her Master of Education degree in Reading Instruction at the University of Mary. She is a newlywed and parent of two kittens.

North Dakota United is the state's largest professional association of public educators and employers. Membership includes over 11,000 K-12 school teachers and support staff, higher education faculty and staff, city, county and state employees, retirees and students pursuing a degree in education. The purpose of the NDU Foundation is to promote educational excellence and quality public service in North Dakota. The Foundation's goal is to aid educators, public servants and students in achieving greater educational success. The Foundation accomplishes this by providing to individual educators, public servants and college student various grants and scholarships designed to enhance their skills.
